How to Start a High Speed Low Carb Ketogenic Diet How to Start a High Speed Low Carb Ketogenic Diet –How to Start a High Speed Low Carb Ketogenic Diet –Tired of eating boring diet? Craving to lose weight and feel better? Now, we will share with you the best method for how to start a high speed low carb ketogenic diet. The ketogenic diet plan is suitable for weight loss. The ketogenic diet is based on the ketone bodies, which is a form of energy, instead of the use of glucose. You won't feel hungry on this diet plan and your metabolism will be affected, which makes you look more beautiful and healthier. How to Start a High Speed Low Carb Ketogenic Diet Plan This diet is a low carb high fat diet because the main goal of the ketogenic diet is to remove the carbohydrate energy from your body, so that your body can start to burn fat for energy. The ketogenic diet has been studied by many people including Dr. Atkins and many others. People are now starting to experience the benefits of the ketogenic diet, including weight loss, reduction in cholesterol and blood pressure, and brain disease treatment. Before you start on the ketogenic diet, the first step is to consult your doctor to determine if this diet is suitable for you. When starting on the ketogenic diet, you need to change your diet as follows: The first step is to restrict your calorie intake. You need to keep your calorie intake about at 500 calories below the daily value. Cut down your carbohydrate, and increase your fat, protein, and fiber consumption. The next step is to work out for about 30 minutes to 1 hour a day, 3 times a week. Do not exercise with additional carbs for 2 weeks, and then work
